Dear Mr. and Mrs. Weisberg--

Today TWO copies of PHOTOGRAPHIC WHITEWASH came in the mail, so I am returning one copy. I assume my letter and the first book sent by you crossed in the mail service.

Thank you for the trouble to send the second copy, and I am returning it to you for future sale. Having just read the excerpt in POST from Josiah Thompson's new book, SIX SECONDS IN DALLAS, he seems to be to have made the best case for what happened at the scene of the assassination of all that I have read and heard. He had the advantage, of course, of full use of the Zapruder film. I would be indebted to you, Mr. Weisberg, for your comments on the POST article as it does not seem contradictory to your own viewpoint.

Blessings on you both in your work.

Cordially yours,

Rev. John R. Cory
